Guide Application

GENERAL INFORMATION

- A guide is a person who is employed by or who has contracted independently with a licensed outfitter and who accompanies a participant in the pursuit of fish or game. A person may not act as a Guide or otherwise represent to the public that they are a guide without first securing a license to practice guiding in Montana.
- First-time applicants must complete a hands-on First Aid course. Online First Aid will not be accepted for initial applicants.
- Complete and routine applications will be processed within 10 days. Non-routine (Non-routine is defined in ARM 24.101.402) applications must be considered by the Board during a regularly scheduled meeting and the process may take up to 120 days. The applicant will be notified if additional information is required or if the application is going to be considered non-routine. Applicants may be required to appear before the Board for an interview.
- Guides who utilize any type of watercraft while providing services shall display Board issued watercraft identification stickers. The watercraft identification must display the guide's license number for identification purposes. One set will be issued upon request of the applicant. [See ARM 24.171.413]
- The applicant will be notified in writing of any deficient or missing items from the application file.
- Applicants and licensees shall keep the Board office informed at all times of any address changes, changes in license status and complaints or proposed disciplinary action.
- Your guide license must be in your possession at all times while providing services. [See ARM 24.171.2301(3)(j)]
- Guide licenses expire on December 31 of each license year but may be renewed. [See ARM 24.101.413]
- Applicants should review the Board's laws and rules regarding the practice of guiding in Montana. These laws and rules can be found on the Board's website at www.outfitter.mt.gov.

LICENSE REQUIREMENTS AND QUALIFICATIONS

- Must be 18 years of age or older.
- Must be physically capable and mentally competent to perform the duties of a guide.
- Must be endorsed and recommended by an Outfitter with a valid current Montana license.
- Must have a valid current wildlife conservation license.
- Must have current First Aid Certification. Initial applicants must take a hands-on First Aid Course.
- Must have not less than one season of experience of hunting or fishing for the type of game for which the applicant will guide or have worked for the outfitter that signs the license for a period of at least six weeks and in the area to be guided in, or have successfully completed a school licensed by a state, approved by the board, and that trains persons to be a guide or professional guide.
- Must have knowledge of hunting and fishing techniques to provide the particular services contracted to the client by the endorsing outfitter.
- Must have knowledge of equipment and terrain and hazards to competently provide a safe experience for those persons guided.

FEES: Guide Application Fee: $150

(All fees are nonrefundable and nontransferable. Please make check or money order payable to the Montana Board of Outfitters)

APPLICATION PROCEDURES AND REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

- Applicants should complete the application in its entirety and attach to it all supporting documents and a check or money in the appropriate amount for all fees required. Supporting documents are identified below and any document that is not in English must be accompanied by certified translations.
- Submit current copy of the First Aid Certification (front and back). Initial applicants must take a hands-on course.
- Submit proof of age, such as, copy of birth certificate, driver's license or passport.
- Submit copy of valid Montana FWP issued wildlife conservation license.
- Submit, if applicable, a copy of successful completion of Guide School.
- Submit copies of legal documents/detailed explanation and supporting documentation from the source explaining a "yes" response to questions 10 to 20 on this application. Failure to submit documentation will delay the processing of the application.
- Applicant must request license verifications from all states (including Montana) if they hold or have ever held any professional or occupation license. Attachment A should be used for requesting this verification. Contact each state to see if a fee is charged for the verification. The license verification should then be sent directly to the Montana Board of Outfitters. Make copies of the attached verification form (Attachment A) as needed. Professional and occupational licenses include, but are not limited to: guide, outfitter, private investigator, security guard, nurse, EMT, massage therapist, dental hygienist, medical assistant, electrician, plumber, architect, engineer, cosmetologist, barber, attorney, real estate sales person, card dealer, timeshare broker, teacher, taxidermist license, etc.
