The following is a checklist of items that you must provide to the Board for each continuing education course you wish to have reviewed for credit.

1. An individual continuing education credit application must be completed for each course to be reviewed.
2. Applications must include:
 - A timed outline, brochure, or other documents thoroughly describing course content and time spent on each topic.
 - Background information on the instructor(s).
 - If offered online, proof that the course is ARELLO approved (www.arello.org).
3. If you have already taken the course, a course completion certificate signed by the course provider.

Send a complete application packet and all fees to: Board of Realty Regulation, PO Box 200513, Helena, MT 59620-0513. Make check or money orders payable to the Board of Realty Regulation. DO NOT SEND CASH.
